Press release

La Cité du Vin voted one of the best museums in the world by National Geographic magazine (US edition).

National Geographic, America's renowned magazine, has just published its choice of the 11 best museums in the world. With more than 3.5 million copies sold monthly and 20 million visitors to its website each month, it offers travel enthusiasts a selection of the world's finest museums. La Cité du Vin ranks alongside London's Design Museum and Tate Modern, the Museum of Tomorrow in Rio de Janeiro and the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art.

Support the cultural seasons at La Cité du Vin with the Fondation pour la culture et les civilisations du vin:

Individuals and companies can support La Cité du Vin's cultural events. Thanks to donations from Patrons and Friends, the Fondation pour la culture et les civilisations du vin, an officially recognised non-profit organisation, provides a rich and varied cultural programme all year round at La Cité du Vin, informing and enlightening as many people as possible about the millennial culture of wine and helping to protect this intangible and universal heritage.

=> As a company - by joining the Patrons of the cultural season from €5,000/year.

=> As an individual - with the 'Friend's Card' (for a donation of €250/year), or the 'Benefactor's Card' (for a donation of €1,000/year).

=> As an international donor - by joining the American Friends or International Friends of La Cité du Vin.
